

ACCA DipIFR

What is ACCA Diploma in IFRS (DipIFR)?

ACCA Diploma in IFRS (DipIFR) is an international qualification in International Financial Reporting Standards, developed by the leading professional accounting organisation - Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA). Obtaining this qualification will raise your professionalism in IFRS to the next level.

The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) is one of the largest and fastest growing international accountancy bodies. ACCA has been in existence for over 100 years. It is recognised and respected in 181 countries and currently has over 198,000 fully qualified members and 486,000 students worldwide.

Why ACCA Diploma in IFRS (DipIFR)?

International IFRS is a major issue for most companies and finance professionals. Over 90% of the world's leading economies either require IFRS or are converging with it, so few companies can afford to ignore the need for their staff to understand IFRS and its implications for their business and financial reporting.

Who is the DipIFR for?

This program is intended for professionals working in accounting, audit and finance who want to take a qualification exam in International Financial Reporting and broaden their knowledge of the theoretical and practical aspects of IFRS.

Certified specialists with ACCA DipIFR will gain:

- Deep understanding and knowledge of main IFRS Principles,
- IFRS reporting skills, including consolidation of financial statements,
- Practical application of IFRS.
