

Managing Tax Control

Who is this training for?

The seminar is primarily intended for finance and accounting staff who are likely come into contact with the Tax Authorities during a possible tax audit of your company, but also for individuals in positions of responsibility who make important business decisions.

What's in it for me and my business?

During the course you will gain new and improve existing knowledge related to the tax procedure which can be of help in contact with the Tax Authorities. This seminar is an opportunity to familiarize yourself with tax procedure with the help of our experienced lecturers and to get answers on practical issues.

What is the benefit of the training?

After the seminar you will have a clear overview of the basic concepts of tax procedure, types of tax controls, taxpayers' rights and legal remedies which can be used against decisions made during tax audit. Also, we would like to offer practical answers to some basic issues and concerns related to tax audits. Our goal is to share experience and to bring you closer to this area of importance for your business.

Duration:

One day